

Rev. Craig Neufeld is the Pastor of First Mennonite Church Edmonton.

Originally from Southern Ontario, Craig has taken to heart the phrase “go west, young man.” Craig came to Edmonton in 2019, following an 8 year pastorate in rural Saskatchewan. Craig enjoys a variety of hobbies; whether they be creative: cooking, photography or woodworking, or exploring: tinkering, reading or travelling, or competitive: board gaming. Craig is an old-soul with eclectic interests.

Craig earned his M. Div from Anabaptist Mennonite Biblical Seminary in Elkhart, IN. He’s further obtained CPE training from the University Health Network in Toronto, ON.
